

Dementia Dialogues®

A nationwide community-based dementia intervention for caregivers and health care professionals to improve the quality of life and care of those living with dementia.

Over 7 million people suffer from dementia

Reasons to Participate

- Better understanding of dementia
- Improved quality of care
- Increased confidence and reduced stress
- Enhanced safety
- Stronger supports
- Professional and career benefits
- Positive impact on the community
- Free to join

Become an educated caregiver

Training equips people with knowledge, skills and empathy - leading to safer care, better communication, and improved quality of life for individuals living with dementia and those who support them.

Topics Include

- 1 An Overview of Dementia
- 2 Communication Strategies
- 3 Promoting Independence
- 4 Addressing Challenging Behaviors
- 5 Creative Problem Solving

SCHEDULE A TRAINING TODAY!

Office for the Study of Aging
Arnold School of Public Health
UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Tel: 803-766-1794
Email: OSA@sc.edu
Website: osa-sc.org

